SUSAN TSUI GRUNDMANN CONFIRMED AS MSPB CHAIRMAN

Washington, D.C. – National Federation of Federal Employees (NFFE) General Counsel Susan Tsui Grundmann yesterday afternoon was confirmed by the Senate to serve as the next Chairman of the Merit Systems Protection Board.

In response, NFFE National President William R. Dougan issued the following statement:

“Over the course of her six years with NFFE, Susan has been a beloved and well respected member of our staff – one who will not be easily replaced.”

“Defending the legal rights of federal employees for nearly 20 years, she brings a wealth of experience and firsthand knowledge to her new post. I have no doubt that she will be an honest, dedicated and exemplary public servant.”

“Federal employees are gaining an exceptional individual to serve as Chairman of the Merit Systems Protection Board.”

“All of NFFE wishes her the best of luck in her new position.”

The MSPB is an independent, bipartisan agency tasked with upholding the merit systems under which Federal employees work. The mission of the MSPB is to protect Federal merit systems and the rights of individuals within those systems.
